What you can do in the UK

You can:

- study, subject to Academic Technology Approved Scheme \(ATAS\) conditions
- use the National Health Service (NHS) in a similar way to permanent UK residents
- rent somewhere to live
- access a current account with a bank or building society in the UK
- travel in and out of the country if you can provide a valid passport or travel document – you may not be able to enter the UK without one

Working in the UK

You must work for the employer who sponsored you.

You can:

- only work in the job you are sponsored for as your main job
- work overtime in the job you are sponsored for - subject to the working time regulations
- complete the notice period for a job you were doing when you applied for your current visa

Voluntary work

You can:

- do unpaid voluntary work for a charity, voluntary organisation, statutory body, or an associated fundraising body
- only be paid for reasonable expenses when doing voluntary work

Additional part-time work

While you are working in the job you are sponsored for, you can also do part-time work.

Part-time work must:

- be in an eligible Skilled Worker occupation
- only be done for up to 20 hours per week in total, even if you have more than one part-time job
- only be done outside the contracted hours of the job you are sponsored for - part-time work cannot take priority over your sponsored job

Things you cannot do

You cannot access public funds.

Continuous absence

If you remain outside the UK for a continuous period of more than 2 years, your permission will normally lapse if it has not yet expired and you will have to apply for a new visa.

Legal basis of status

You have been granted permission to stay in the UK (also known as leave to remain) until 16 May 2027.

If your personal details change

You must tell us about any changes to your personal details, such as your name or nationality. You should also tell us if your sign-in or travel document details change, so that you can continue to access your information online.

You can use this service to tell us about changes to your

- email address
- phone number
- home address
- passport or travel document details, including change of name or nationality
