DANGEROUS ITEMS

REMOVE NOW

KEEP WITH YOU

Guests are advised that Port Security has the duty to search Guests and luggage to confiscate any article internationally known as dangerous for the safety and security of Guests, Crew and ship. Such items will be confiscated and not returned. Also, if explosive material, guns or illegal drugs are detected, law enforcement will be immediately alerted. In connection with this, MSC Cruises will be forced to deny access to any guests not complying with these mandated regulations. In the interest of health and safety, beverages and food (including partially eaten or home cooked items) may not be brought on board either. Exception: dry, packaged and commercially produced foods as well as confectionary. Objects that are considered to be fragile, personal and/or valuable (jewelry, electronics, money, travel documents, backpacks, medicines, diapers... etc.) must be carried as hand luggage only since MSC Cruises cannot accept liability for their damage or loss. Make sure to keep your ID/Passport and all check-in documents handy.
