Continuous absence

If you stay outside the UK without returning for more than 2 years, your permission will normally lapse if it has not yet expired. You will have to apply for a new visa to enter the UK.

Legal basis of status

You have been granted permission to stay in the UK (also known as leave to remain) until 20 November 2027.

Keep your details up to date

You must keep your personal details up to date in your UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) account.

You can check and update the details in your UKVI account including your:

- phone number
- email address
- home address
- passport or other identity documents, including change of name or nationality

If there is an error on your eVisa

If any of the information is wrong, you can report an error with your eVisa.

Before you travel

You may be delayed or denied boarding by carriers if you have not added the passport or identity document you are travelling with to your account.

Use the update your UKVI account details service to add a passport or identity document to your account.

Nationality information

When you add a passport or identity document to your account, the nationality on the newly added document will be displayed on your eVisa.
