IMPORTANT INFORMATION

TRAVEL HEALTH REQUIREMENTS Guests have the responsibility to comply with the health and entry requirements in force in the country of destination which Costa takes the pain to share on the different communication channels at the following link Travel Health Requirements.

Failure to comply with these requirements will preclude embarkation and the Guest will be held responsible for the costs of repatriation/return back home.

Costa recommends signing up for some kind of travel insurance in order to be covered against the odds of cancellation of the holiday package or in case of medical expenses occurred on board.

If you have booked an Around the World cruise, or if you wish to have information on the protocols existing on board to safeguard the health of our guests, we suggest checking the FAQ section that you can find on this page <https://www.costacruises.co.uk/cruising-soon-again/safety-above-all.html>.

PAYMENT METHODS Once the deposit is paid, you can choose to settle the remaining balance using one of the following methods of payment: bank transfer or credit card, as per terms and conditions listed below. If you choose to pay by credit card, the balance will not be withdrawn automatically both for direct debiting and for payment of any penalty charges owed; therefore, you are kindly requested to contact 0800 389 0622. If balance due will not be paid within scheduled time, the reservation will be automatically cancelled by the system. Our Bank details: BNP Paribas London Branch IBAN: GB41 BNPA 4063 8485 0630 17 BIC-SWIFT: BNPAGB22XXX.

INSURANCE At the time of booking, you may have chosen to take out our insurance by paying the associated premium. If so, you'll find attached to the email the Insurance terms and conditions.

SERVICE CHARGES ON BOARD The hotel service charge is part and parcel of the price of the cruise. It can be paid on board or prepaid when booking your cruise. More information can be found in the "Useful Information" section of our official website.

SPECIAL NEEDS, DISABILITIES, AND SPECIAL DIETS In order to enjoy the onboard experience with peace of mind and safety, it is essential that all medical needs or special diets be communicated during the booking phase and that all the necessary forms be filled out within 40 days prior to the departure date; in case of bookings made within 40 days prior to the departure date, the communication and forms must be shared at the time of confirmation. More details are available by clicking here.

We also remind you that women, who have entered the twenty-fourth week of pregnancy or enter this period during the cruise, will not be allowed to embark. All pregnant women must carry a medical certificate upon boarding, issued by a gynecological specialist, certifying the state of good health of themselves and of the fetus, as well as the suitability to participate in the trip and the pregnancy period.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE Please be aware of the General Conditions of Sale and processing of personal data attached to the e-mail.

CANCELLATION CONDITIONS Cancellation's conditions are detailed in our General Terms and Conditions, under 'Passenger's right of withdrawal from the contract' at the following link: General Terms and Conditions.

C|CLUB The reservation at the Club Restaurant remains valid providing C|Club Members have not been downgraded on the date of departure. SUITE For Guests in Suites, the Club Restaurant is guaranteed.

CABIN NUMBER (G0000) When you buy a guarantee cabin (G0000), you are purchasing a cabin of the same or higher category than the one booked. The assigned cabin does not entitle the passenger to benefit from the privileges and rights associated with it.

Cabins may have twin beds and/or obstructed view. They may also be equipped for passengers with reduced mobility.

IDENTITY DOCUMENTS Please get in contact with the competent authorities to check which documents and visas are required to travel outside your Country of residence depending on the cruise itinerary you have chosen. Passengers who do not have all the required documents to complete their cruise will not be allowed to embark and they will not be entitled to any refund.

TRAVEL DOCUMENTS AND WEB CHECK-IN Go to the "Tickets and Transport" menu on My Costa page now and fill out the form with the details of all the guests needed in order to confirm any possible flights and to issue the cruise ticket that will be available and downloadable a few weeks before departure. In addition, 14 days before the departure of the ship, you will have to access and fill in the web check-in section on My Costa where we will ask you to reconfirm your health status, essential to obtain the boarding pass. This document must be shown by all the passengers under the reservation during the embarkation.

FOR CRUISES CALLING IN INDIA Costa Cruises strongly recommends to apply for standard regular Visa in order to guarantee you faster and smoother Customs operations. Electronic Tourist Visa (eTV) might not be accepted by Indian Port Authorities. Passport must be valid at least 6 months after the end of the cruise.

YOUR FINANCIAL PROTECTION The amount you paid for the air holiday package is ATOL Protected by the Civil Aviation Authority. Our ATOL number is ATOL 9758 | UK Registration No. BR10132.

FOR GUESTS TRAVELLING FROM THE UK Due to new rules issued by the government, it is now mandatory for all airline carriers to receive full passenger details prior to departure.

Please provide Passport number, issue and expiry date and place of issue of the passport no., date of birth, nationality, gender no later than 21 days prior to flight departure.

Failure in the airline carrier receiving these details prior to the passengers departure will result in problems at check-in or may even result in the guest being denied boarding.

Costa Crociere cannot be held responsible in case any problems are faced as a result of these details not being provided.

*Best Regards,
