What you can do in the UK

As a dependant, you can:

- work in the UK

You can also:

- study, in line with the conditions listed in the decision (or grant) notice you received from UK Visas and Immigration
- use the NHS in a similar way to permanent UK residents
- rent somewhere to live
- access a current account with a bank or building society in the UK

Things you cannot do

You cannot:

- access public funds
- work as a professional sportsperson or coach

Legal basis of status

You have been granted permission to stay in the UK (also known as leave to remain) until 8 January 2027.

National Insurance number

You will need to obtain a National Insurance number if you plan to work in the UK. If you have one already, it will show at the top of your immigration status profile. If you do not have a National Insurance number, you must apply for one. You can start work while you are waiting for a National Insurance number if you can prove your right to work to your employer. If it has been more than 8 weeks since you applied for a National Insurance number, call the application helpline.

If your personal details change

You must tell us about any changes to your personal details, such as your name or nationality. You should also tell us if your sign-in or travel document details change, so that you can continue to access your information online.

You can use this service to tell us about changes to your

- email address
- phone number
- home address
- passport or travel document details, including change of name or nationality
