Prove your status

If you need to prove your immigration status to someone, you can do this online with a share code.

What you can do in the UK

As a dependant, you can:

- work
- study
- rent somewhere to live
- use the National Health Service \(NHS\) (<https://www.nhs.uk>) in a similar way to permanent UK residents
- access a current account with a bank or building society in the UK
- travel in and out of the country without having to prove your status, as your information will be checked automatically

Things you cannot do

You cannot:

- get public funds (<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/public-funds--2/public-funds>)
- work as a professional sportsperson or coach

Legal basis of status

You have been granted permission to stay in the UK (also known as leave to remain) until 22 October 2026.

National Insurance number

You will need to obtain a National Insurance number if you plan to work in the UK. If you have one already, it will show at the top of your immigration status profile. If you do not have a National Insurance number, you must apply for one. You can start work while you are waiting for a National Insurance number if you can prove your

right to work to your employer. If it has been more than 8 weeks since you applied for a National Insurance number, call the application helpline.

If your personal details change
