What you can do in the UK

You can:

- study, subject to Academic Technology Approved Scheme \(ATAS\) conditions-conditions) (<https://www.gov.uk/guidance/academic-technology-approval-scheme>)
- use the National Health Service (NHS) in a similar way to permanent UK residents
- rent somewhere to live
- access a current account with a bank or building society in the UK
- travel in and out of the country if you can provide a valid passport or travel document – you may not be able to enter the UK without one

Working in the UK

You must work for the employer who sponsored you.

You can:

- only work in the job you are sponsored for as your main job
- work overtime in the job you are sponsored for - subject to the working time regulations (<https://www.gov.uk/maximum-weekly-working-hours>)
- complete the notice period for a job you were doing when you applied for your current visa

Voluntary work

You can:

- do unpaid voluntary work for a charity, voluntary organisation, statutory body, or an associated fundraising body
- only be paid for reasonable expenses (<https://www.gov.uk/volunteering/pay-and-expenses>) when doing voluntary work

Additional part-time work

While you are working in the job you are sponsored for, you can also do part-time work.

Part-time work must:

- be in an eligible Skilled Worker occupation (<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/skilled-worker-visa-eligible-occupations>)
- only be done for up to 20 hours per week in total, even if you have more than one part-time job
- only be done outside the contracted hours of the job you are sponsored for - part-time work cannot take priority over your sponsored job

What you cannot do

You cannot access public funds (<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/public-funds--2/public-funds>).

Continuous absence

If you stay outside the UK without returning for more than 2 years, your permission will normally lapse if it has not yet expired. You will have to apply for a new visa to enter the UK.

Legal basis of status

You have been granted permission to stay in the UK (also known as leave to remain) until 23 January 2029.

Keep your details up to date

You must keep your personal details up to date in your UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) account.

You can check and update the details in your UKVI account including your:

- phone number
- email address
- home address
- passport or other identity documents, including change of name or nationality

If there is an error on your eVisa

If any of the information is wrong, you can report an error with your eVisa.

Before you travel

You may be delayed or denied boarding by carriers if you have not added the passport or identity document you are travelling with to your account.

Use the update your UKVI account details service to add a passport or identity document to your account.

Nationality information

When you add a passport or identity document to your account, the nationality on the newly added document will be displayed on your eVisa.
