What you can do in the UK

Your settlement status (https://www.gov.uk/guidance/indefinite-leave-to-remain-in-the-uk) means you can:

- live in the UK
- work
- study
- rent a place to live
- use the National Health Service (NHS) in a similar way to permanent UK residents
- access public funds (https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/public-funds--2/public-funds), if you are eligible for them
- access a current account with a bank or building society in the UK
- travel in and out of the country without having to prove your status, as your information will be checked automatically

Continuous absence

If you stay outside the UK without returning for more than 2 years, your permission will normally lapse. You will have to apply for a returning resident visa (https://www.gov.uk/returning-resident-visa) if you wish to live permanently in the UK.

Legal basis of status

You have been granted settlement in the UK (also known as indefinite leave to remain).

Keep your details up to date

You must keep your personal details up to date in your UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) account.

You can check and update the details in your UKVI account including your:

- phone number
- email address
- home address
- passport or other identity documents, including change of name or nationality

If there is an error on your eVisa

If any of the information is wrong, you can report an error with your eVisa.

Before you travel

You may be delayed or denied boarding by carriers if you have not added the passport or identity document you are travelling with to your account.

Use the update your UKVI account details service to add a passport or identity document to your account.

Nationality information

When you add a passport or identity document to your account, the nationality on the newly added document will be displayed on your eVisa.
